

Lennard Brodner

Trainee

PROFILE

I am a socially engaged person that is highly interested in topics related to social justice as well as local and global power structures. During my studies I did a lot of voluntary work, such as giving legal advice for refugees and migrants. I was born in Steinfurt (Germany) in 1992 and today I live in Berlin.

LANGUAGES

German – native

English – fluent

INT. EXPERIENCE

I have done a twelve-month voluntary service in an orphanage and school in Ghana and completed an internship at Youth of United Nations Tanzania.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

11/2015 –
12/2019

PROJECT COORDINATOR

In 2015 I co-founded the project Gemeinsam Global which offered workshops on the topics flight, asylum and migration in order to sensitize youth people for power structures within a white and male dominated society. In this regard I was primarily responsible for the organisation and implementation of trainings for multipliers. After the project ran out, I co-founded the NGO verlernen e.V. which among other facilitates anti-racist and gender-sensitive workshops and trainings for prospective social workers and teachers.

09/2018 –
12/2019

FREELANCE TRAINER

Next to my commitment in coordinating projects for Gemeinsam Global and verlernen e.V. I started working as a freelance trainer for Caritas and later also for ICJA Freiwilligenaustausch weltweit e.V.. There I was responsible for the conception and implementation of seminars in order to prepare prospective long term volunteers for their service or rather support them in their ongoing service. In this context I also provided support and guidance for junior-trainers.

EDUCATION

10/2012 –
05/2017

Bachelor of Arts

I studied ethnology and human geography at the University of Göttingen, focusing on societies in sub-saharan Africa and south east Asia. Final Thesis: Neo-colonial patterns of thought and action in reports of "weltwärts"-volunteers, Final Grade: 1,7 07/2011

Abitur

During school time I had advanced courses in History and Biology. Final Grade: 2,3