

Kateryna Pavlova

Regional Project Coordinator

PROFILE

I am a person with a strong degree of responsibility and get easily fascinated about new ideas and approaches. Originally coming from Ukraine I grew up as a responsible citizen respecting individual freedom and social awareness. CRISP's profile and approach became a new home to me, where I can contribute to a peaceful conflict transformation and political education of people of different backgrounds.

LANGUAGES

Ukrainian - native

German - fluent

English - fluent

Russian - fluent

Polish - intermediate

INT. EXPERIENCE

I have been implementing projects and conducting workshops in:

Eastern Europe

(Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Moldova, Poland, Russia and Ukraine)

Central Asia

(Kyrgyzstan)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PROJECT COORDINATOR

03/2017 – today

In 2017 I started my work at CRISP as a Volunteer within the program European Voluntary Service and received an opportunity to get directly involved in project management as well as development and facilitation of simulation games. Afterwards I joined the team as a full-time employee with the main focus on Eastern Europe and was involved in coordination of the following projects:

Hidden Memories: developing a smartphone-app that enables users walking on Maidan to put on headphones and listen to twelve personal stories illustrating different experiences and opinions regarding the events on Maidan in 2013/14.

Indirect beneficiaries: approx. 5.000 / Annual Budget: approx. 120.000 EUR

Peace + Conflict Consultant: increasing the quality and quantity of civil society peacebuilding measures in the target region and thus contributing to the establishment of a sustainable peace infrastructure in the region. Also coordinated preparation of the handbook "Peace Practice: Theory and Practice of Peacebuilding Initiatives in Eastern Partnership Countries and Russia"

Indirect beneficiaries: approx. 3.500 / Annual Budget: approx. 98.000 EUR

TRAINER / FACILITATOR

03/2017 – today

In many activities I was involved as curricula developer and workshop facilitator. In this regard, I have worked with very diverse target groups, in terms of age, cultural and professional background, as well as various topics and regions.

conflict transformation

Workshops: Tandera (Ukrainian Institute for the Future) / Transolvía (Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen)

civic education

Workshops: Bribania (Transparency International) / SIMigration (Kreisau Initiative) / Right-Wing Populism (Friedrich Ebert Foundation) / and others

citizen participation

Workshops: Taberlingen (forumZFD)

EDUCATION

09/2014 – 09/2017

Master of Science / Diploma

I studied Cultural Diplomacy focusing on Central Europe at the Andrassy University Budapest. Final Thesis: Concept of Historical Exhibition in the Embassy of Ukraine in Berlin on the Topic "Ukraine's Role in the Bread Treaty 1918", Final Grade: 1.0

08/2010 – 07/2014

Bachelor / Diploma

I studied English language and Literature at Eastern European National University and was a head of students' union at the faculty. Final Grade: 1.9